HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

Effective Health, Safety and Management control and work practice is an integral part of our company culture and is recognised as a key driver in respect to achieving success in our business objectives.

Key HS&E Policy Objectives

To ensure that our business operations are undertaken in accordance with best practice procedures which reflect compliance with current statutory safety, health and environmental legislation.

To provide our workforce with “best practice” training, information, procedures, skills, equipment and leadership to assist them in ensuring our business operations, at all times, reflect “best practice”.

To continually develop and improve our health and safety culture;

To promote the “Respect for People” principles as highlighted within the Construction Taskforce industry improvement report “Rethinking Construction”.

To ensure the Directors and Senior Management of REDS10 (UK) Ltd recognise and fully support the requirement to establish improved H&S standards within the industry and are committed to supporting our clients in achieving this objective by ensuring excellent standards of H&S management and practice within our operational control.

To influence improvement objectives and practices within our supply chain, which we recognise as being important to the success of our client’s projects and the industry in general.

To work successfully with our supply chain in realising significant and tangible H&S performance improvement standards in all of our project appointments and undertakings.

To ensure our business operations do not cause risk to the health and safety of our employees or to others who may be affected by our business operations.

To ensure our business operations do not cause risk to the local or wider environment through poor environmental management control or work practices

To continually improve our H&S policy at regular intervals or at other times where events such as significant H&S incidents or the introduction of new or updated legislation dictates.

To commit to consultation and participation of workers, and, where they exist, workers’ representatives.

Key Statutory Duties Compliance.

We shall do all that is reasonably practicable to implement our legal duties under all relevant statutory provisions and in particular those provisions outlined in:

- The Health & Safety At Work Act 1974;
- The Management of Health & Safety at Work Regulations 1999.
- The Construction (Design and Management) Regulations 2015.
